General Information

Dear Parents and Students,

CIY MOVE is a huge part of our summer here in the High School Ministry. For a lot of you, it is a huge part of your summer as well. God has used this event to do incredible things in our group in the past. Unfortunately, this year we are once again unable to travel to Corvallis for MOVE. However, that does not mean summer is canceled. We have an awesome event planned for the summer.

We will be holding High School Camp at Faith Heights Campground in Donnelly, ID. Camp will feature a lot of the same elements that we would have seen at MOVE in Corvallis, but will be right in our backyard. Faith Heights is right on Lake Cascade, and is a beautiful location. With this change, we have had to shift the dates by a week. Camp will be July 19-23. Go ahead and read through this packet to get the rest of the details. We are so excited for this summer, and we hope you are too!

What about Financial Aid?

Due to the generosity of our congregation, we are able to offer financial aid to some students for CIY. However, we would ask this: Please pay as much as possible. The more people who can pay allows us to take more students to MOVE!

Common things that will get a student sent home include, but are not limited to: vaping, consuming tobacco at CIY, consuming alcohol at CIY, distributing pornography, or continually refusing to follow direction from leaders. Depending on the situation, in some cases we may be required to contact the police. The parents or guardians of any students sent home are responsible for covering the cost it will take to send a student home from CIY, whether that be through bus, rental car, flight, etc.

Frequently Asked Questions

High School Camp

1. *What is a typical day like?

A normal day will include breakfast, a "Morning Show," a morning worship session, small group time, lunch, plenty of free time (to hang out on the beach, toss a football around, join a tournament, or hang out with friends), dinner, an evening session, and "Place to Be" with snacks and games. We have some other things planned, but we don't want to give away too much!

2. *Will this be like a normal CIY MOVE?

In some ways, yes. In other ways, no. Many of the events that make MOVE awesome and unique will still be included. It won't be as huge of an event as move, but that also gives us freedom to do some awesome things and to be at such a cool camp!

3. *I'm a parent, and I am not sure that camp will be safe. What can you tell me about that?

We understand. It seems sketchy to send a student away with a bunch of other High Schoolers... But, we take their safety, security, and experience very seriously. We will be taking adult leaders on the trip who will be assigned a group for the week. Those leaders (each leader usually has around 5-6 students) keep track of students and make sure things are happening in a safe way. Each leader has a cell phone so they are connected. We also do things like "roll call" anytime we enter the bus or move somewhere together as a group. Rules and boundaries are clearly stated at the beginning of the trip and with each stop. Our camp facility—at Faith Heights Campground—is in a safe area. The Canyon Springs staff and volunteers work hard to make sure that this trip is safe for students.

4. *I'm not sure I can pay that much. Can I get any help or raise any money?

We do have Financial Aid available for Camp. We do ask that each student pay as much as possible, so that we can bring as many students as possible. If your family needs assistance for Camp, please contact the youth staff and ask for a Financial Aid Request form. Raising money is also a fantastic option. We do have a couple of fundraisers planned for those who need assistance with camp cost. We also encourage students to plan their own ways to raise money. Figuring out how to pay for the trip also helps students feel invested in their experience while they are there.

5. *What about things like cell phones, iPods, or game consoles?

Here's the deal. We live in a world where cell phones are pretty necessary. They help parents feel better and give students an important means of communication during the event. So, cell phones and iPods are allowed. That said, while cell phones are allowed, students are discouraged from using them during worship, small groups, and youth group time. Take the time to enjoy the people around you...you can cruise instagram, play Candy Crush, or text the fam some other time. If we see excessive phone use, we will be asking you to take a break from it. In some scenarios where a student will not stay off of their phone, a leader may ask to have it for the duration of whatever part of the program we are doing.

One final note: An unfortunate thing in today's world with cell phones is the easy access to sexually explicit images or pornography. We also recognize that bullying—cyber and in-person—is a real, serious thing. Any student caught sharing, viewing, or looking up sexually explicit images or pornography or bullying others will lose their cell phone privileges, and John or Mario will contact their parents regarding this. We'll handle it with grace and love...but we take these things very seriously. In some cases, students may need to be sent home.

7. *Why should I go to High School Camp?

Simply put, camp is a chance to experience God in a fresh, exciting way with other people. Yeah, you can do that at home or at youth group...but often we don't. Sometimes, getting away from distractions can be one of the greatest things for our walks with God. In addition to this, camp will simply be filled with fun times! It's a blast to be together, explore together, worship together, and goof off together.
